Notice to Members.

The copies of the Governor's Veto Message ordered by the House and Senate are now ready for delivery in single wrappers, at this office, subject to the order of the members.

THE FRANKLIN COUNTY PRECINCT BILL.

This bill will probably be reported from the committee on Privileges and Elections, to-day or to-morrow, with the substitute offered by the Representative of this county. We trust that the House will vote upon the Senate bill and substitute understandingly. The Senate bill was unanimously recommended by our county convention, and differs widely from the substitute. The Senate bill will remedy the grievances which we have heretofore stated, and should be passed without amendment of any kind, while the substitute is worse than the present arrangement of precincts, and is in all respects a specious humbug, designed to impose upon the Democracy.

The Louisville Jail Case.

A bill has passed the House of Representatives to give to Thomas Batman the right, within thirty days after the passage of the act, to give notice to Mr. W. K. Thomas, and proceed to contest his election to the office of Jailer of Jefferson county. The Democrat recalls the history of the case thus:

"It will be remembered that Batman received a majority of sixty-three votes, but that the two magistrates, who compared the polls, excluded from the count all votes contained in papers not signed by the clerks of the election. Thus Batman was beaten by two votes, and the certificate was given to Thomas. According to the opinion of the Court of Appeals, Batman's only remedy was by appeal to the board for trying contested elections. The law directed that the notice of such appeal should be given within ten days after the final action of the board of examiners.

"The final action of the examining board took place on Friday after the election, and Batman notified Thomas of his intention to contest the election on the second Monday thereafter. The board for trying contested elections refused to try the case upon the ground that the notice had not been given within ten days after the final action of the board; and upon a mandamus applied for by the members of said board to compel them to try the case, it was held by the Circuit Court and by the Court of Appeals that the notice was too late, and that the contesting board were not bound to try the case—in other words, that Batman's right was barred by the ten days limitation. Both the Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals, however, held that the two magistrates erred in excluding the votes above referred to, and that according to the proof, Batman was entitled to the office, and should have received the certificate; but that, as a contested election was his only remedy, and as he had failed to contest the election within the time prescribed by law, no relief could be given him.

"The bill now pending in the legislature proposes to give Batman the remedy which he lost by limitation. If the Legislature can consistently with the Constitution give that remedy, we know that not only every Democrat but many of the Opposition in this city would gladly see it done. Indeed we presume that every fair-minded man in the State, without respect to party, would say that if the Legislature can constitutionally give that remedy it ought to be done."

Danville in Ashes.

On the night of the 22d inst., the town of Danville was nearly destroyed by fire. From the information of a gentleman just from that place, we are enabled to give some of the particulars of this truly terrible calamity. During a high wind on Wednesday evening, the fire broke out, about half past 4 o'clock, in the dwelling of Prof. Matthews, and raged with unabated violence until 11 o'clock at night. The court-house, the Patterson hotel, the Reformed church, the Episcopal church, the Second Presbyterian church, most of the business houses, and a great number of dwellings are in ashes. The fire consumed two whole blocks, or squares, in the heart of the town, besides partially destroying other portions. We have heard various estimates of the loss, but we suppose it would be a moderate calculation to state it at half a million of dollars at the least. Scarcely anything was saved in the quarters where the fire raged, and many families are left entirely destitute.

An editorial appeared in this paper on the 22d inst., in relation to the Apportionment Bill, which, though in the main good, contained unwarranted strictures upon the course of some Democratic Senators. We have, on several occasions during the present session, differed widely with some of the members of our party, as to the true Democratic policy upon measures pending before the Legislature; but we have not claimed the right to denounce all who failed to agree with us. The article in question was handed into the office for publication late Tuesday night, when we were absent, and therefore escaped our attention until it appeared in print. It is hardly necessary for us to add, that all the matter which appears in our daily issue is not from the pen of the editor. It sometimes though rarely happens, from the press of our engagements, that we do not even have an opportunity to read it all before publication.

We are glad to notice that Nicholas A. Rapier, Esq., Representative of Larue county, who has been confined at home by severe illness for more than a month, is again in his seat, where he will be able to do good service for his constituency.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

Its wonderful effects and consequent popularity—perhaps no article in the history of Materia Medica ever acquired the same patronage, was subjected to the same number of severe and different tests, and met with as few failures as the Mustang Liniment. It has justly been styled the Panacea for all external Wounds, Cuts, Swellings, Sprains, Bruises, or Eruptions on Man or Beast. It is so far a medicine of surprising value, that Physicians are compelled to prescribe it, and from some remarkable cures of Chronic and Distorted Rheumatic cases it has naturally attracted much attention from the first scientific minds of the age. No family can afford to be without a bottle of the Mustang Liniment in the house. Beware of imitations.

The genuine is sold by respectable dealers in all parts of the world.

ever neglected by him, and many hearts in the city where he resided will feel keener pangs of grief on remembering his generous assistance to them in their hour of need.

Mr. LYON was born in the county of Shelby in 1808. He was 51 years of age at the time of his death. He married in early life, the partner of his youth, who climbed with him up the steep of life to whom he was devotedly attached survives him. He became a member and an Elder of the Christian Church at Flat Rock, in Shelby county, nineteen years ago. After his removal to the city of Louisville he became a member and an Elder in the Christian Church, and was a member of that church at the time of his death. He was loved and honored by his brethren for his christian virtues, and sadness and sorrow now reign in that congregation for a loss which cannot be supplied; sorrows which time alone can assuage.

He was twice elected to the Legislature from the 1st District in this city, his public acts met with the universal favor and commendation of his constituents; he was, in compliment for his legislative record, returned to the Senate. His deportment, and the manner in which he discharged his duties here, are known to you all—the strictest integrity marked his course. Those of us who were associated with him in politics could rely with certainty upon his assistance, and those who differed with him in opinion will pay him the merited tribute in saying that his partisan feeling never led him astray from that path which marks the course of all true and honorable men.

Mr. SPEAKER, this is not the only occasion we have had for mourning since this session commenced. The memory of the mourning week which shrouded our hall for the Lieutenant Governor of this Commonwealth, is still fresh in the memory of every member of this body. This is but another occasion to remind us that this "world is but a fleeting show," that human life is uncertain; that he who is in the full vigor of health to-day, may to-morrow shroud his friends in weeds of mourning.

It is fit and proper that we should speak of the merits of departed worth—that we should emulate their examples. The life and character of the deceased exhibit to us in all of its force and beauty one of the brightest features in our government; that an humble birth is no embarrassment to social and political elevation; and preference; that moral worth and integrity of purpose is the only certain and true road to honor and fortune. Mr. LYON was the architect of his own fortune—he was a mechanic, and elevated himself to that fame which will live and forever remain fresh and green in the hearts of all who knew him. Such were the life and character of this worthy and good man whose death we now deplore.

He then offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from among us our estimable associate, JOHN C. LYON, late Senator from the Louisville District, and the Senate sharing in the general sorrow which this event so melancholly and so startlingly sudden has produced, and wishing to mark its appreciation of his public services and private virtues; therefore,

Be it resolved, That the State has lost an honest and faithful public servant; and that we deeply sympathize with his family and friends in their bereavement.

Resolved, That as an evidence of our respect for his memory, we do now adjourn until to-morrow.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the widow of the late Senator by the Speaker of the Senate, with a proper expression of our sympathy for her, and the sad deprivation which Providence has visited upon her.

Mr. FISK said:

Mr. SPEAKER: Death has again invaded the Senate Chamber; another of our members has gone, and how suddenly. For myself, I had scarcely missed him from that seat he so steadily and punctually filled. I had not heard that he was ill, till the tidings came that he was lying at the threshold of the other world. I was shocked, but had not recovered from my astonishment when the mournful message came that he was dead. He left us with an even opportunity of saying farewell.

The sacred writer has said: "Man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets." He was a Christian. How blessed the consolation that he has gone home—and to his long home. How sweet the assurance that the Christian's ear—he home, high up in Heaven—There are no tears there, no sorrows, no anguish of parting with those we love. All is light and beauty, and joy there, and blessedness.

Mr. SPEAKER, when I die, I covet no higher honor than to be inscribed upon my tombstone: "He was a friend of common schools"—these blessed institutions, where the talents and genius of the poor man's sons and daughters are nurtured and cherished. Let them multiply upon every hill-top and in every valley of the Commonwealth! That was his hope—that was the great thought of his life. But he is stricken down in the midst of his usefulness, and has left his unfinished task to other hands.

This is indeed a sudden and a sad bereavement to the State and to his family. It is a great loss to lose a wise statesman, and in these degenerate days, a greater loss, to lose a Christian man from the halls of legislation.

To his afflicted family I tender my deepest condolence. To them the loss is irreparable. He has left a vacant seat around the family table and the family altar. But, Mr. SPEAKER, they mourn not as those who have no hope. He had a hope like an anchor to the soul, sure and steadfast, which reached within the vale, beyond the ken of mortal vision. With an eye of faith I see him now, in the presence of the Great White Throne, and him that siteth thereon, surrounded by an innumerable multitude, who have gone up through great tribulation, having their robes washed and made white in the blood of the Lamb. And there, in that great presence, I hear the announcement, "Well done, good and faithful servant!"

Mr. SPEAKER, what shall I profit us if we gain a region of fame and unbounded riches, if we still go down to the damp, cold tomb, to the icy regions of the dead, without the hope of our brother had. May we so number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom—that peaceful wisdom that cometh down from above, so that at last, when with us life's journey is ended, we may sit down with our departed brethren in that happier and better convocation, where parting will be known no more.

Mr. WHITAKER also made a few appropriate remarks, which we will publish to-morrow.

And then the Senate adjourned.
